SEPT. 26-28, 2024
CELEBRATION GROUNDS
SHELBYVILLE, TN

EDUCATION

Help cultivate an immersive educational experience to all 4th graders in Bedford County. We have hands-on demonstrations of homestead skills, animal husbandry, and traditional techniques.

MUSIC

From lively banjo tunes to soulful fiddle melodies, your support ensures that audiences continue to experience the authentic traditional sounds unique to our region.

COMPETITION

Join us in celebrating the strength, agility, and unique beauty of mules. Become a sponsor today and help us showcase the enduring legacy of mules to audiences far and wide.

HOMESTEADING

Become a sponsor of our homesteading programs and help us preserve and promote valuable skills from our past! From gardening to food preservation, woodworking to sustainable living, our homesteading initiatives offer hands-on experiences that educate and inspire. Join us in supporting the revival of traditional practices and empowering individuals to live more self-sufficiently.

SPONSOR TODAY

- Heritage Preservation: By sponsoring this event, companies can align themselves with the preservation of rich cultural heritage, resonating with audiences who value tradition and history.
- Community Engagement: By supporting an event that brings people together to enjoy music, entertainment, and educational experiences, sponsors can enhance their brand visibility and foster positive relationships with attendees and the general public.
- Targeted Audience: Sponsoring offers access to connect with a niche, yet passionate, audience. Mule enthusiasts, bluegrass music lovers, homesteaders, and those interested in traditional American culture represent a dedicated and engaged demographic to invest in.
- Brand Exposure: From logo placement on promotional materials and event signage to mention in press releases and social media posts, sponsors can increase brand visibility and awareness among a diverse audience locally, regionally and nationally.
- Corporate Social Responsibility: By investing in initiatives that promote cultural awareness, education, and community engagement, sponsors can enhance their corporate reputation and contribute positively to society.
